

Human Services Online Training

The To The Rescue HOPE Foundation is pleased to offer Human Services Online Training. This training program will benefit individuals:

- exploring a career in human services,
- wanting to improve their human services job skills,
- seeking a promotion in the human services field, and
- wanting to learn together with an individual they currently support.

The training covers a broad range of subject areas while remaining 100% dedicated to the field of intellectual disabilities, with modules on subjects such as Active Support, Person-Centered Approaches, Thinking and Planning, Challenging Behavior and Supported Employment just to name a few.

Learning is made easy with a range of multimedia tools that engage the user. Learning methods include interactive graphics that explain abstract concepts, short films with closed captions, animation and audio that is synced to all written content.

The HOPE Foundation is a 501c3 nonprofit organization dedicated to improving the quality of lives for the at-risk population. It was established to support safe and affordable housing, employment opportunities, transportation, healthy living, community access, advocacy and other essential needs. The mission of the HOPE Foundation is to empower at-risk individuals and those assisting them to live their best life. To learn more about The HOPE Foundation visit TTRHopeFoundation.net.

Open Future Learning is an online learning provider dedicated to the field of developmental disabilities. Open Future Learning offers modules, mini modules, side by side modules, audio learning modules and videos. To learn more about Open Future Learning visit OpenFutureLearning.org.

This free training is available thanks to a grant from Developmental Pathways and the American Rescue Plan Act (ARPA) Section 9817, in conjunction with the Centers for Medicare and Medicaid Services (CMS) and the Colorado Joint Budget Committee (JBC). To learn more about Developmental Pathways visit dpcoloro.org. To learn more about American Rescue Plan Act visit hcpf.colorado.gov/arpa.
